

Maha Samadhi Day

“I was seeking a way of doing this,” She remembers, “working it out inside myself. Through my own style of meditation, I was working out all the permutations and combinations.”

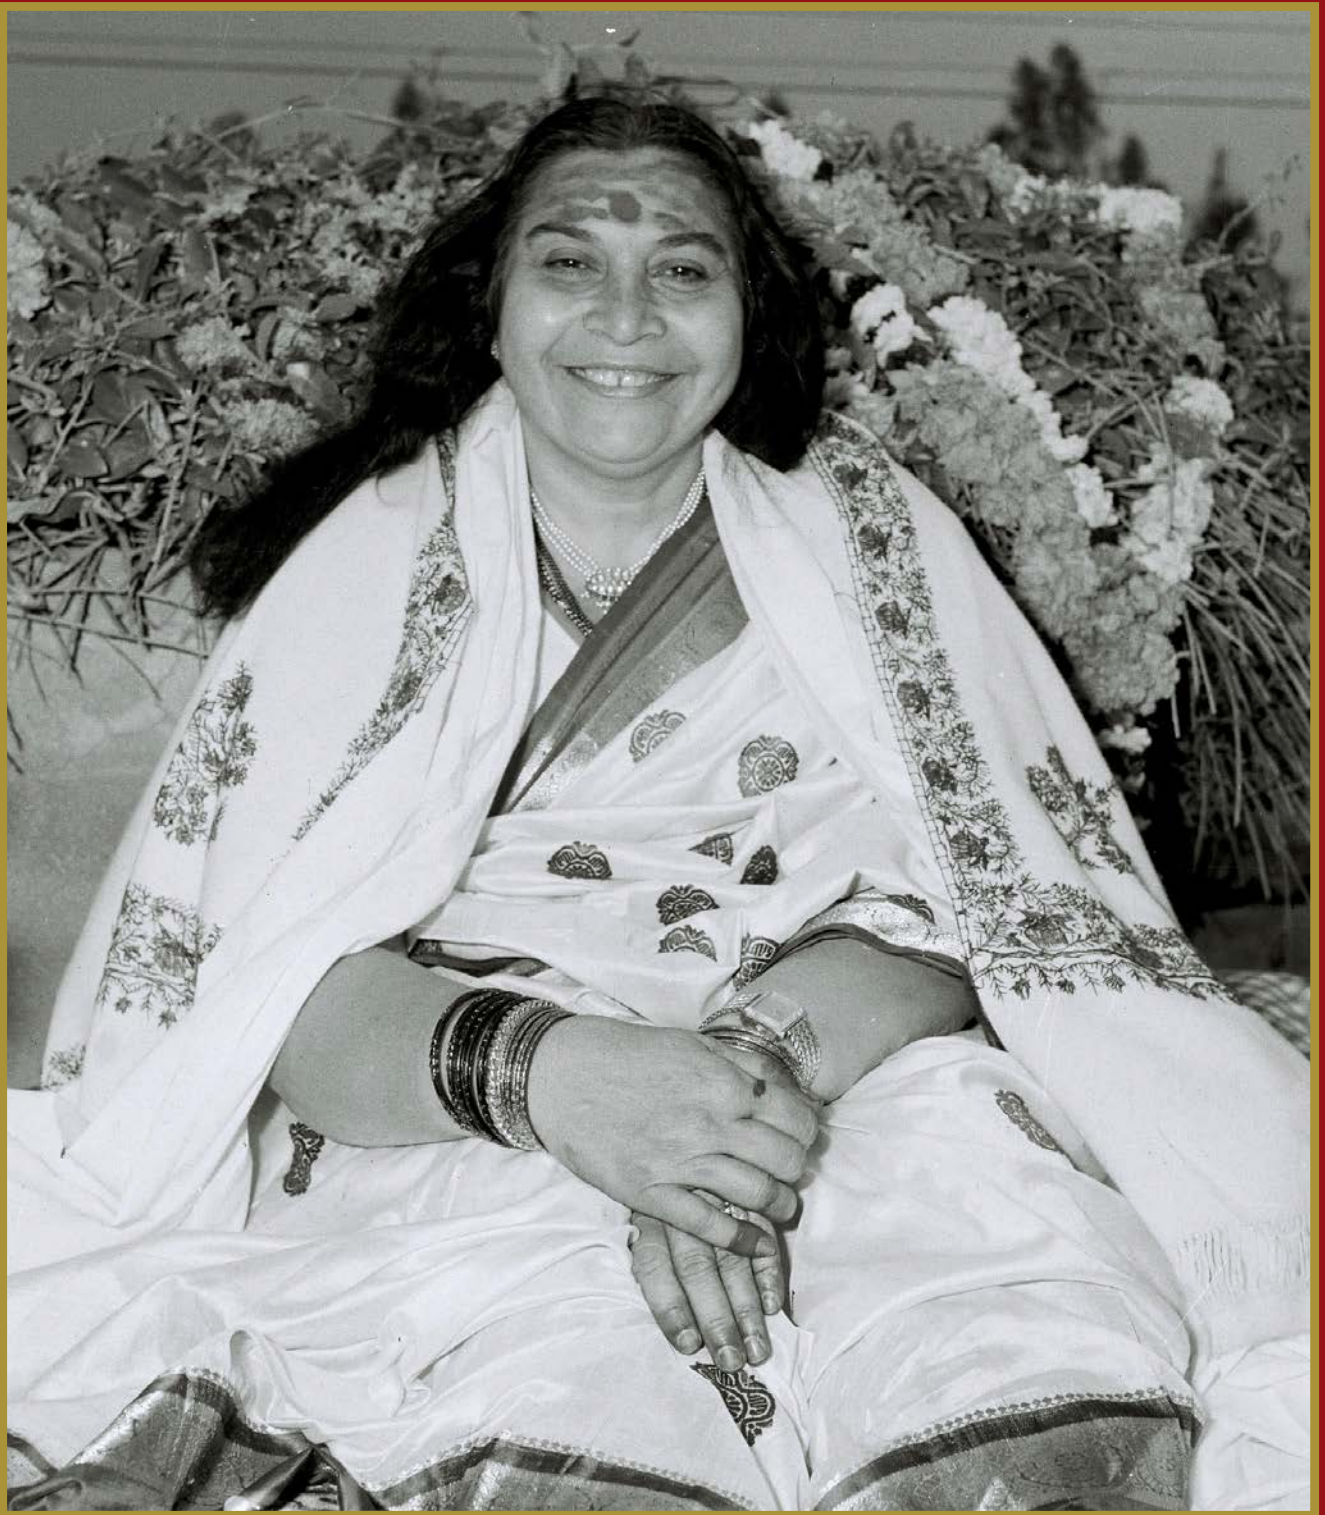

So today we have to see that Devi is using Her sword to pierce through our heart so that all negativity runs away, and through that She wants to plant the lotus for Shiva to settle down.

She wants to take away all that ugliness from within. It's like an operation; but so delicate and so beautifully done, you never even felt it.

Navaratri Puja, Margate (UK), 8 October 1989.

At this moment in time, we the children of Our Supreme Holy and ever Loving Mother are in a unique position in the whole history of humanity, we have met God and now we have been entrusted with the honour of being the channels whereby Our Holy Mother's vision can be realised.

She is beyond our comprehension and at the same time She incarnated in a human form, as the Comforter and the Redeemer. Blessing us with our second birth, raising us above our minds and into the eternal glorious kingdom of God.

Dearest Mother, how do we even begin to thank You

Mother, thank You very much for the Realisation
“Mother, thank You very much for the Realisation, Mother, thank You very much for making us understand how great we are, Thank You very much for bringing all the blessings of the Divine, Thank You very much for raising us higher, much higher than from where we were,
Thank You very much for sustaining us
Thank You very much, ultimately, that Mother, You have come on this earth, taken Your birth and are working so hard for us, for all of us.”
