

INVITATION (Realization Tour)

Dear Brothers and Sisters from all over the world,

On the auspicious occasion of GURU PUJA, we humbly invite all the Sahaja Yogis from all over the world to join us to celebrate this auspicious occasion and spread the Divine message of Love through the Amritsar Realization Tour 28 June to 30 June 2023 (3 days).

During the Tour we desire to reach all sections of society in Amritsar. Realization programs will be held in schools & colleges, government institutions, armed forces, corporate offices, parks, historically significant venues, and tourist places. Realization will be given via various activities such as cultural & musical events, Sahaja rallies, flash mobs, Deepotsav, etc.

What have we done all these years?, What have we achieved?
Attending My Puja is no favour to Me. Or doing anything for the Puja is no favour to Me. My greatest Puja is that of human beings; and if you can achieve and spread Sahaja Yoga that fast, I'll be very, very grateful to you."

TOURIST DESTINATIONS

The Golden Temple

The Golden Temple, also known as Sri Harmandir Sahib is a highly revered religious Sikh shrine and symbolizes equality and human brotherhood. The gurudwara epitomizes the distinctive heritage and identity of Sikhs while glorifying their ideals. After its compilation, Sri Guru Granth Sahib (scripture of the Sikhs) was first installed at Sri Harmandir Sahib on 16th August 1604. At this soothing site, everybody can seek religious fulfillment and spiritual solace, irrespective of the caste.

The Durgiana Temple

Durgiana Temple, also known as Lakshmi Narayan Temple, is a Hindu temple located in the city of Amritsar located around 1.6 Km from the Golden Temple. It bears a stark resemblance to the famous Golden Temple while also carrying the same sense of peace, tranquillity and spirituality. Within this historic temple lies a beautiful Sarovar where one can find idols of Goddess Lakshmi and Lord Vishnu floating. The rare sculpture of the sitting Hanuman, considered one of a kind, is found in the temple premises. One of the main highlights at the temple is the fountain show which takes place in front of the main temple every evening.

Shri Ram Tirth Temple

Shri Ram Tirth Temple, located near Amritsar city, was built to honor the birthplace of Luva - Kusha, twins of Rama and Sita. Constructed in lime yellow stone, the temple dates back to the epic of Ramayana where Sita was given in the Ashram of Balamiki after being abandoned by Rama. The battle of Ram's Ashwamedha force with Luv-Kush is said to have taken place here. The gurukul of the twins, situated in the temple compound, is regarded as an architectural wonder by pilgrims.

Please Note - the above mentioned schedule and timings are tentative. The itinerary is subject to various factors such as availability of locations, permissions etc

Attari Border

One of the best places to visit near Amritsar, Attari/ Wagah Border is marked with a patriotic high. Located around 30 km from the city centre, it is the only road border crossing that runs between India and Pakistan. Every evening, the border turns into a ceremonial ground before the sunset and attracts hordes of tourists. It is the time when soldiers belonging to both the countries engage in Beating Retreat and Change of Guard ceremonies. It is a daily practice when the lowering of the national flag takes place on both sides of the border by the soldiers, accompanied with elaborate and quick military exercises.
